

Regent

BEIJING

Regent Beijing recognised with Condé Nast Traveler 2018 Readers' Choice Awards

October 2018 – Regent Beijing, a luxury hotel located in the heart of China's dynamic metropolis, is pleased to announce it has been included in the 31st annual Condé Nast Traveler Readers' Choice Awards 2018. With an overall score of 86.96, Regent Beijing is ranked number 18 in the "Top Hotels in China" category. The luxury property was also announced as the third best hotel in the whole of Beijing.

The Condé Nast Traveler Readers' Choice Awards 2018 are a prestigious recognition of excellence in the travel industry. It recognises the world's top hotels, destinations and cruise ships; the listed winners are discerningly selected by over 429,000 global readers this year.

Nicholas Emery, Managing Director of Regent Beijing said, "We are thrilled and extremely honoured to be awarded one of the top hotels in China by the Conde Nast Traveler Readers' Choice Awards. We would like to thank all the readers who voted for Regent Beijing."

About Regent Beijing

<https://www.regenthotels.com/regent-beijing>

Located a heartbeat from the legendary Forbidden City, Regent Beijing invites travellers to immerse in more than 3,000 years of history from the sanctuary of one of the world's as well as Beijing's finest luxury hotels. Favoured by both leisure and business travellers, Regent Beijing offers a superlative stay in the Wangfujing area, combining luxury accommodation, cosmopolitan dining and superb amenities with unparalleled personal service.