Regent Beijing Welcomes the Wiener Symphoniker

BEIJING, China (April 2017) –As Vienna’s cultural ambassador and concert orchestra, the Wiener Symphoniker handles the lion’s share of symphonic activity that makes up the musical life of the Austrian capital. The orchestra’s activities centre around innovative projects that are associated with the purposeful cultivation of important Viennese musical traditions.

Mr. Uli Altrichter, Director of Sales and Marketing, was thrilled to welcome The Wiener Symphoniker and conductor Philippe Jordan for their stay at Regent Beijing on Wednesday, 5th April 2017.

Currently Musical Director of the Opera National de Paris and Chief Conductor of the Wiener Symphoniker, Philippe Jordan has established himself as one of the most gifted and exciting conductors of his generation. In the 2015-16 season he will conduct among others a full cycle of the Beethoven piano concertos (solist: Pierre-Laurent Aimard) with the Wiener Symphoniker and a new production of Moses and Aron at the Opera National de Paris.

About Regent Hotels & Resorts

Regent is a global luxury hospitality brand encompassing hotels, resorts and residences. It was founded in the 1970s by legendary hotelier Robert H. Burns, later joined by Adrian Zecha and Georg Rafael. In the '80s and '90s, Regent is the first hotel brand to introduce the 5-fixtured bathroom, the all-villa resort, and the mixed-used hotel development. It is a truly Asia-based global hospitality group to successfully challenge the industry's European and US dominance, both with the opening of the flagship Regent Hong Kong and the iconic Regent Beverly Wilshire. As an international leading hotel brand, Regent has been constantly receiving award recognitions around the world. The existing Regents are located in Beijing, Berlin, Chongqing, Porto Montenegro, Taipei and Singapore with a return to Jakarta as well as a new hotel opening in China's Harbin.
