FEATURING NEW WINES

" New Generation Star Winemaker of Bourgogne! "

Benjamin Leroux

Maison Benjamin Leroux was launched with the 2007 vintage, and has gradually been expanded over the years, and now has a lovely selection of both red and whites. In 1999, at the young age of 23, he succeeded the former Régisseur (general manager) of the famous Pommard estate "Domaine du Comte Armand" after master Pascal Marchand.

Benjamin Leroux is a talented winemaker who has made a big impression in a relatively short time. He may well succeed to the mantle of Henri Jayet as Burgundy's emblematic winemaker.

In the words of Allen Meadows, Benjamin is "Extremely thoughtful, positively brilliant, one of if not the most gifted young winemaker in all of Burgundy." He exerts maximum control over the growers, insisting on organic and biodynamic practices.

The focus remains on high quality vines and fruit rather than merely prestigious appellations, although there are, to be sure, many of these as well.

Olivier Bernstein

In a very short space of time, micro-négociants Olivier Bernstein has established himself as a new star in Burgundy, receiving superb press notices from his very first vintage, 2007 from both Jancis Robinson and Allen Meadows, among others.

Bernstein comes from a family of music publishers but left a promising corporate career to study oenology in Beaune.

After working at Domaine Rouget, which enabled him to meet the late Henri Jayet, he moved to Roussillon during the 2002 vintage to establish his own domaine, Mas de la Deveze. He returned in Burgundy in 2007 to establish a négociant business.

He has access to some of the world's greatest vineyards, including the Grands Crus of Chambertin, Bonnes-Mares and Clos de Bè

ze. While he does not own these vineyards, he does manage them year-round, under the watchful eye of his head viticulturalist,

Richard Séguin. Richard is the nephew of Bernard Dugat-Py and is responsible for both the vineyards and the cuverie in Gevrey

Chambertin has been working with Olivier since the project started in 2007, acting as the Operating Director managing both the viticulture and winemaking.

Domaine Cécile Tremblay

Cécile Tremblay has grown to be Burgundy's next-generation superstar wine maker in a short time since taking over the domaine in 2003 as the granddaughter of Edouard Jayet (Cousin of Henri Jayet) and wife of Philippe Charlopin.

In terms of wine making style, it is somewhat similar to Henri Jayet's style. However, in addition to implementing a certain percentage of whole bunch fermentation and cold maceration, she also produces elegant and concentrated wines with rich aroma through soft extraction and moderate proportion of new oak. Some stems are kept during vinification, which takes place in wooden vats for up to a month, with some punching down but very little pumping over. The solids are pressed at the end with a small vertical press whose virtues Cécile sings highly. The wines are then raised in barrel, with between one third and two thirds new, for 15 to 18 months without racking. Although the difference between each terroir is clear, all of Cécile's wines are pure, elegant, refined, very fragrant, and rich in texture.

" Let's meet the Pioneer of Volnay "

Elegance, Delicacy

Domaine de Montille

Domaine de Montille based in Volnay and Pommard, this iconic estate makes some of Burgundy's most exquisite wines ; elegant and understated gems which possess haunting perfume and impressive length of flavour.

Hubert Montille was a former lawyer and daughter Alix is wife of the famed Jean-Marc Roulot. And His son Étienne has elevated the de Montille wines to an even higher level, producing some of the purest expressions of Pinot Noir found in Burgundy today.

The emphasis at de Montille is on concentration and purity of fruit, firm but very fine tannic structure and above all the ability to improve and become more complex with time. The estate is increasingly sustainable and respectful of the environment, aiming to reduce non-natural inputs as much as possible.

Whilst Etienne's wines are less austere in youth than his father's, they have lost none of the innate elegance and purity associated with the domaine. Etienne shares his father's abhorrence of excessive new wood, using none in the regional and village wines, a maximum of 30% for the premiers crus and up to 50% for the grands crus. What remained unchanged over the years is the restrained use of new oak. The wines remain in barrels for 14-18 months and normally bottled without fining or filtration.

Ethereal & Silkiness

Domaine Michel Lafarge

Domaine Michel Lafarge is among Volnay's leading domaines, and for decades he made wines with a quiet air of confidence. Along with Domaine Marquis d'Angerville, Domaine de Montille and Domaine de la Pousse d'Or, Lafarge's wines brought prominence to the Volnay village and pushed neighbors to raise quality. The domaine consists of over 11.6 hectares under vine, most of them in Volnay and Beaune, including 0.9 hectares of Clos des Chênes and many top 1er cru vineyards in the appellation. The vinification is traditional with 100% destemmed grapes, and the élevage is done using very low percentage of new oak (around 5%). The wines are famous for their great transparency of their respective terroirs.

The iconic monopole 1er cru "Clos du Château des Ducs" was bought in 1900 by Michel Lafarge's father.

Clos du Château des Ducs's soil consists of a bit more brownish marl (there is 40cm of soil on top of a layer of gravel which sits on a bedrock). Lots of finesse and complexity with well-integrated tannins. Michel Lafarge wines are pure, age-worthy and yet quite beautifully delicate.

Domaine Jean Grivot

Over the last decade, Domaine Grivot is considered one of the top and most consistent names in Vosne-Romanée. In the 1930s it was one of the first domaines to bottle and sell the wines themselves. Étienne Grivot and his wife Marielle took over from Étienne's father Jean Grivot in 1987 and were joined by their daughter Mathilde in 2017. Their holdings span across this 15ha domaine which covers 22 appellations (18 red) with plots in Vosne-Romanée, Nuits-Saint-Georges, Clos de Vougeot, Echézeaux and Richebourg. Organic farming, a lot of old vines (the youngest are at least 40 years old), high density planting (which produces small berries), small vineyards, and a lot of hard work in the vineyard give the wines a ripe and concentrated style. Étienne Grivot produces the classic expression of Vosne-Romanée, depth aromas and flavors of red berries, herbs, and purple flowers with a rich, ripe fruit palate. His wine taste likes the iron fist in the floral velvet glove.

Domaine Taupenot-Merme

Domaine Taupenot-Merme was created in 1963 and located in the village of Morey Saint Denis. It is now run by the brother and sister team of Romain and Virginie Taupenot. For many years, two different estates operated simultaneously, one in Morey St Denis and one in St Romain. These were then merged when Romain took over in 1998. Each of the domaine's wines speak to a sense of place, illustrating typicity punctuated with a signature of impressive aromatics, chiseled tannins, and silky texture, produce very elegant wines that are the purest reflection of their climat and vintage, expressing complex but pure flavors, with very refined tannins, and good concentration without being over extracted. Domaine Taupenot-Merme also owns a small (0.004ha) vineyard of Clos des Lambrays Grand Cru, hence the inability of Domaine des Lambrays to put a "Monopole" label on its bottles.

Jean-Luc Jamet

Jean-Luc Jamet is an undeniable icon and celebrated producer, making some of the most exquisite Côte-Rôtie. He was originally working with his brother Jean-Paul at the famed family estate "Domaine Jamet", they separated in 2013 due to their differences. Jean-Luc Jamet is blessed with some of Côte Rôtie's greatest sites. His cuvée, "Les Terrasses" is from 10 different plots on major slopes such as Lancement, La Landonne, Fongean, Côte Bodin and Les Moutonnes. The mosaic of complex, rocky soils composed of different degrees of schist and granite create a wine of stunning depth and character. These are the many shades that you will find in this delicate and very complex wine. The bouquet of this cuvée is alluring with dense black berries, raspberry liqueur. The palate is structured, powerful, concentrated, with black fruits, black pepper, smoke, iron earthiness and a savory note. The wines have a floral and mineral character in their youth and excel in elegance and complexity. The plots are partly vinified together and gradually "cross over" assembled and mounted. In addition to the use of a maximum of 20% new barrels and 20 to 22 months of barrel aging, to gain complexity, Jean-Luc chooses to ferment 1/3 part in whole clusters.

" Undisputed Master of Chenin Blanc "

Domaine Huet

Domaine Huet is Vouvray's most standard-bearer for great and age-worthy Chenin Blanc. To this day, year after year, the estate produces some of the world's most compelling white wines in a remarkable range that spans sparkling, dry, semi-dry, and breathtaking dessert styles.

"Le Mont" which borders the slopes of the Loire Valley, a choice site on the Première Côte, is indisputably a grand cru vineyard. The soil is pebbly and consists mainly of green-colored clay and silica. The wines produced are elegant and feminine. With age, the wines develop great length and finesse.

"Le Clos du Bourg", a 6-hectare "Clos" surrounded by stone walls, is located on the first slopes above the church in Vouvray. The thin topsoil over a limestone base enables Clos du Bourg produces the most powerful and well-structured wine.

"Cuvée Constance" is a magical, botrytized dessert wine selected from one, two or all three vineyards. Made only in great sweet wine vintages, the Cuvée Constance (named for Gaston's mother) ranks among the world's greatest dessert wines.

\ Moelleux 1ère Trie ("first selection") from any of the three principal vineyards.*
